

Jill Hamilton

Jill is Head of Policy & Health Services, responsible for raising awareness of axial SpA (AS) among healthcare professionals, and policy and decision makers. She is also responsible for parliamentary activity and lobbying statutory bodies around the standards of care for people with axial SpA (AS). She also represents NASS working with consortia. As well as this, Jill also works with the Events Coordinator, Helen Homersham, strategically overseeing event themes and content.